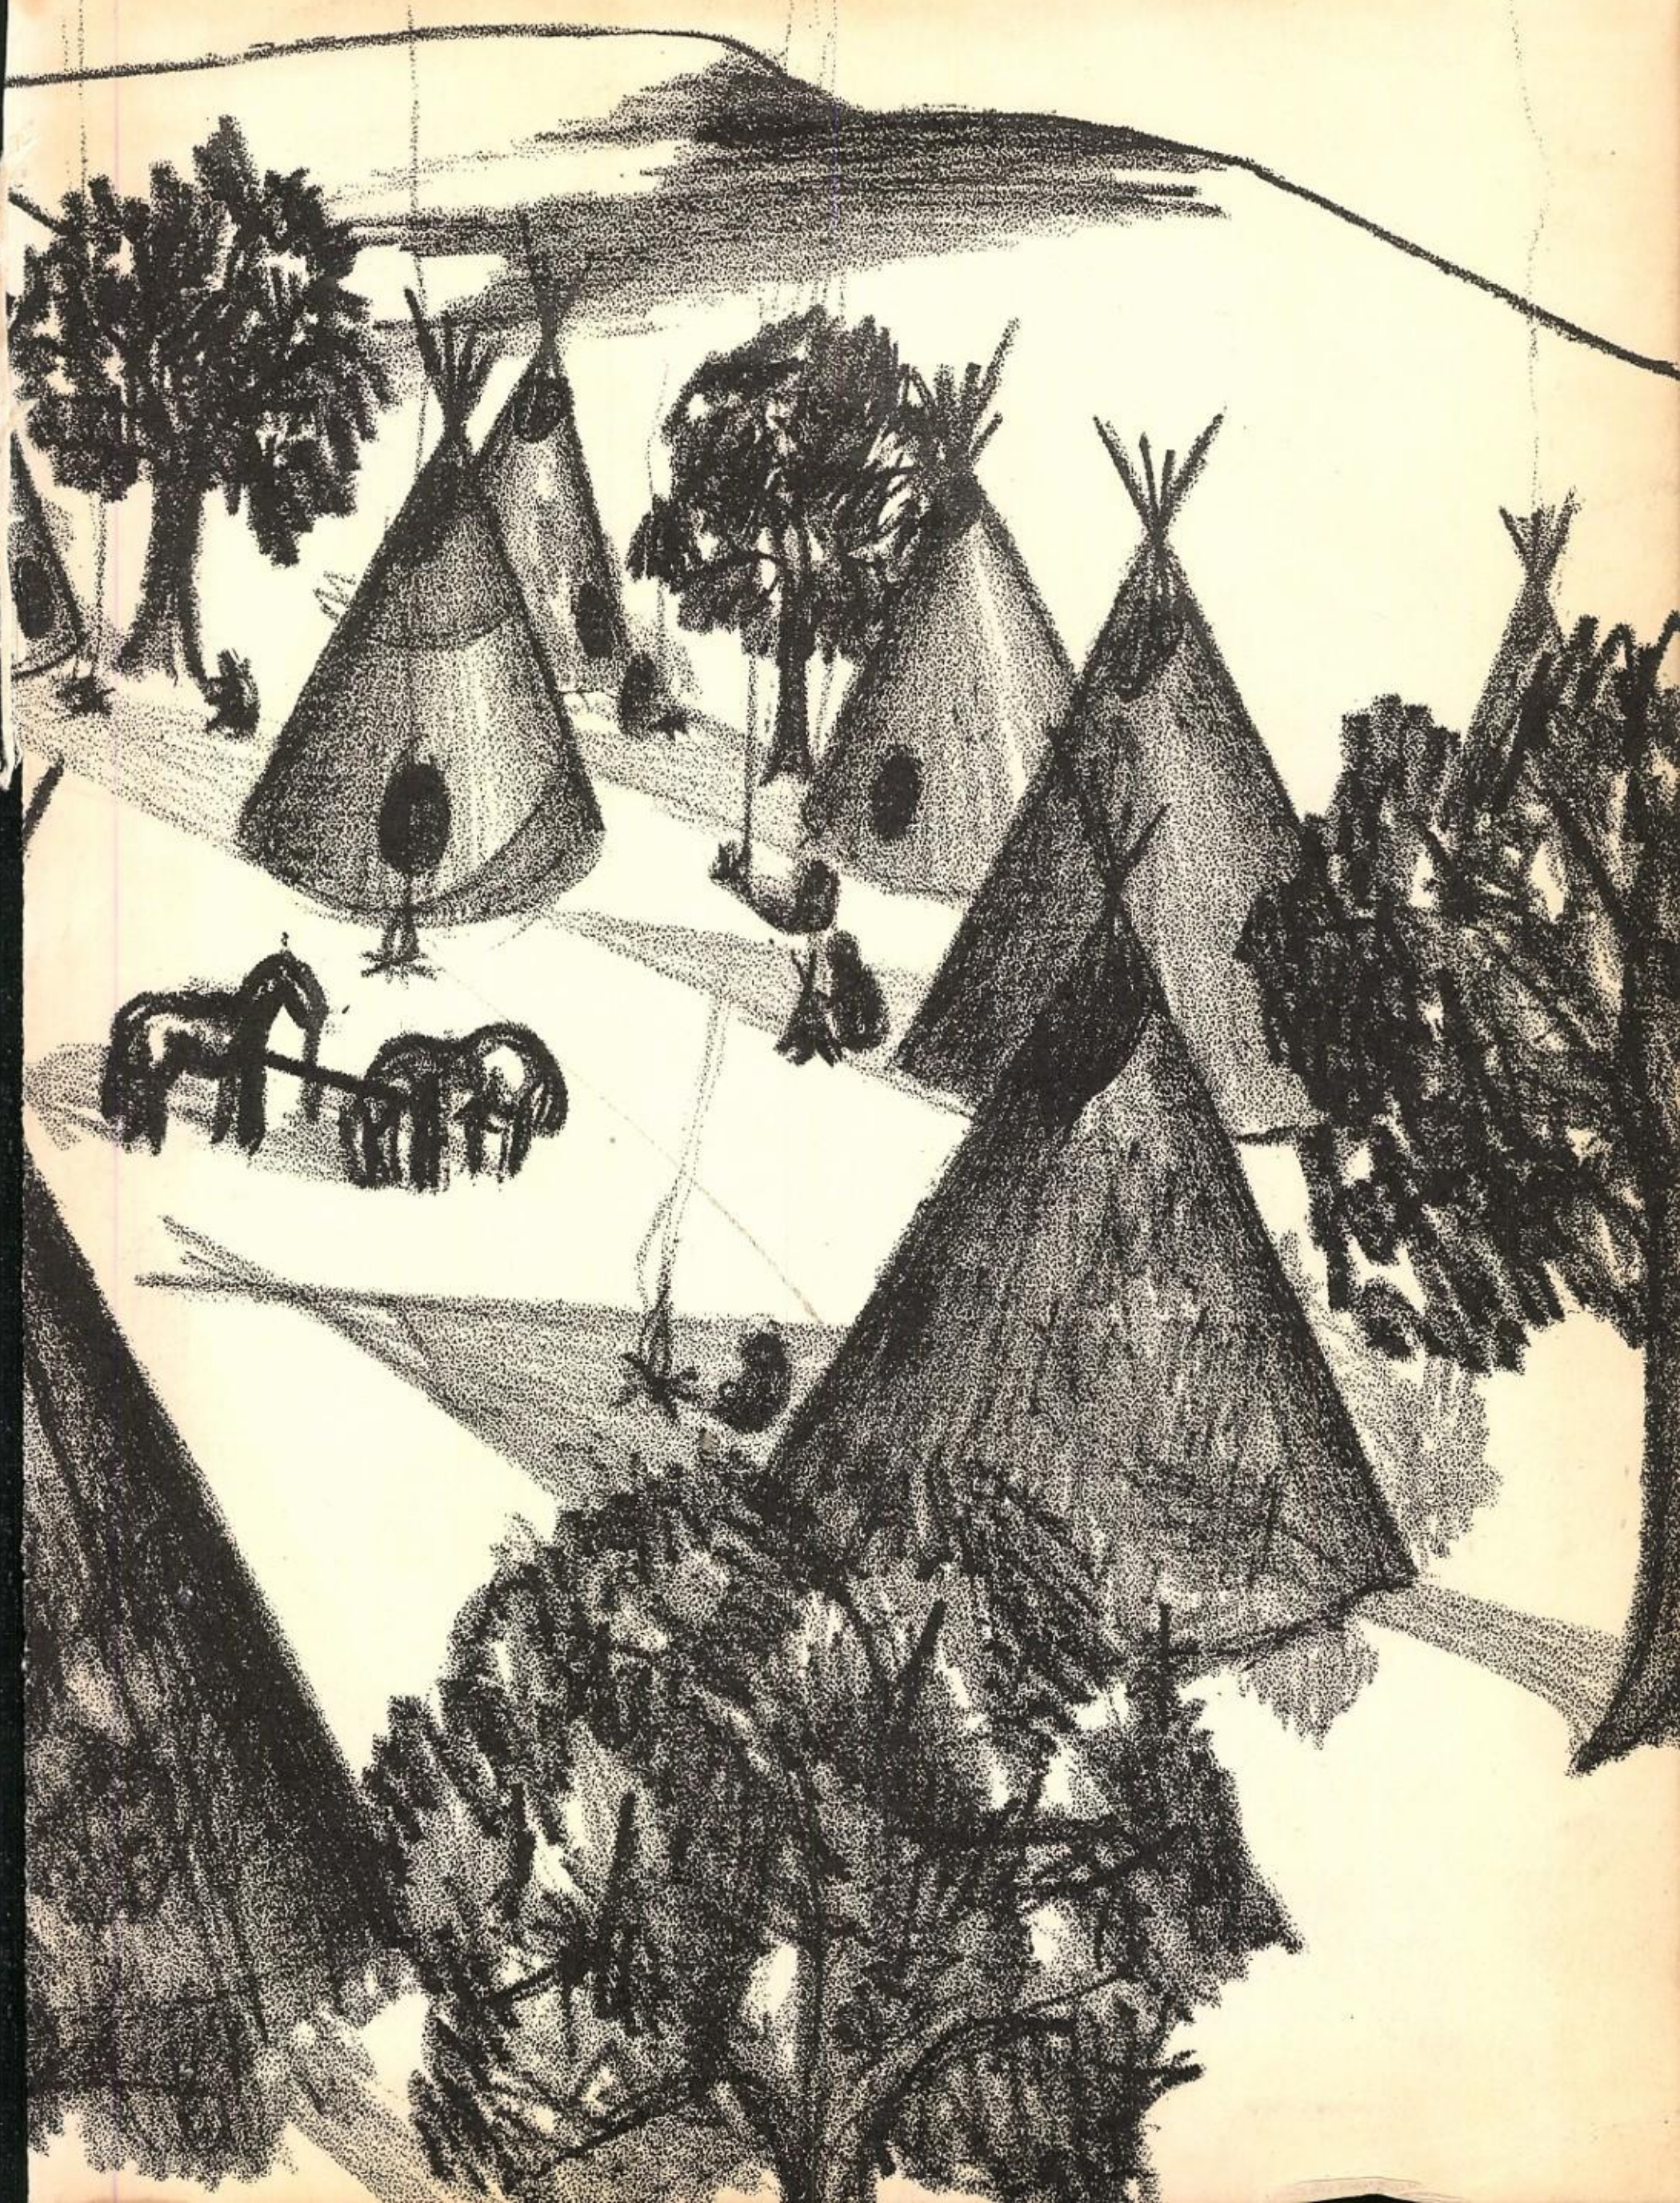
Mary Lou Hargis



Dear Mary Lou

I don't know just what to say or how to say it, but I'd try. You are one of the sweetest girls I know in Yelta High and you have a personality plus. Here wishing you all the luck and happiness in the world.

Love Ya.

FOREWORD

"Once an Indian, always an Indian!" This has become the cherished by-word of all Ysleta High School students. We have only to look back over the way we've come and re-live the past months spent as loyal members of this united tribe to understand its true significance. Yes, we have been an admirable "council of friends," or OTYOKWA.

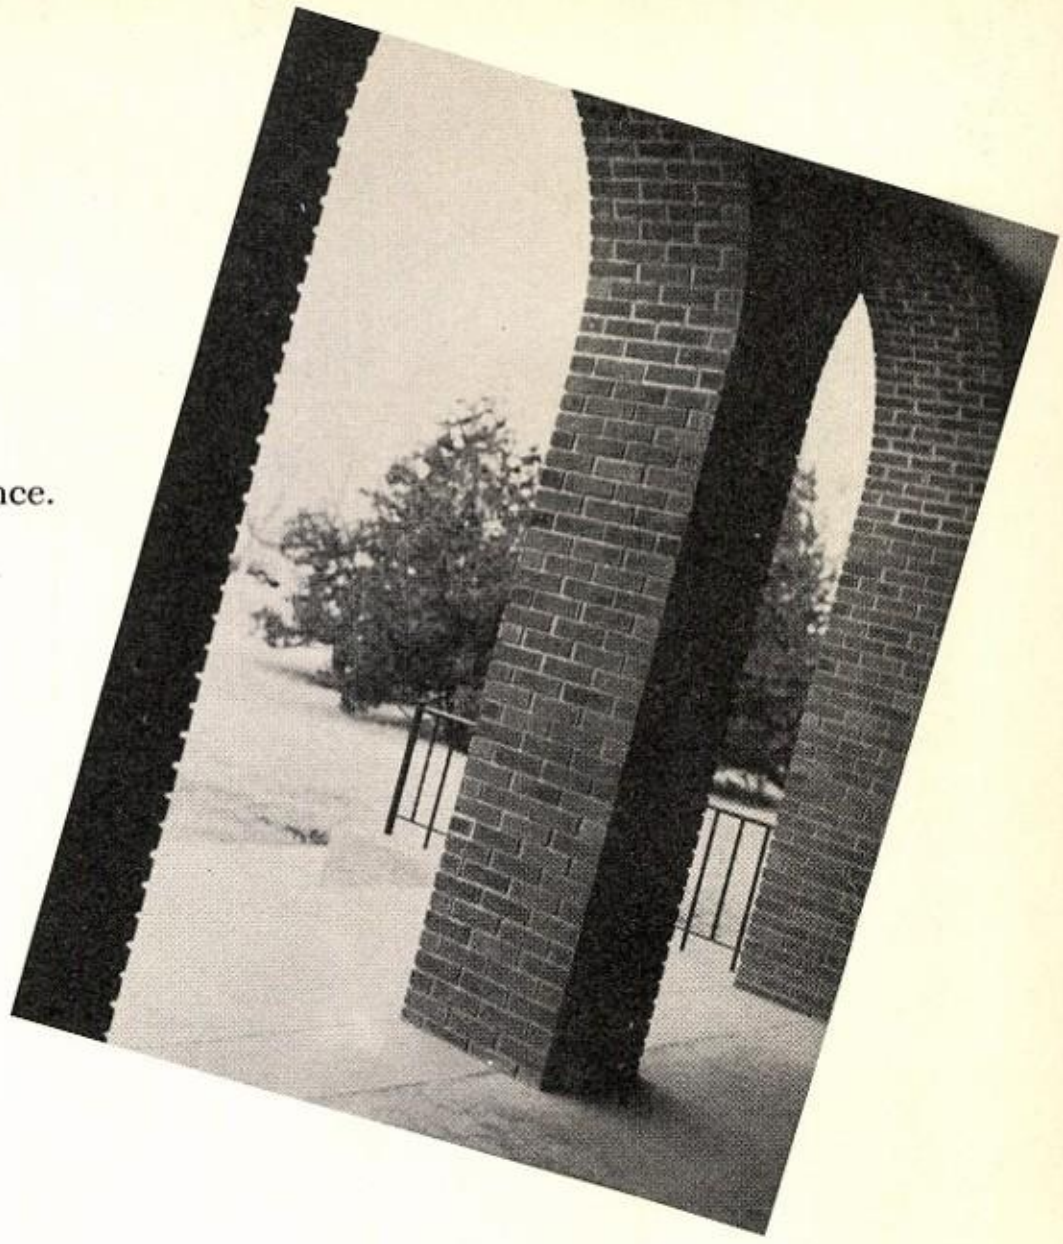
DEDICATION

On our reservation is a Brave responsible for introducing to Ysleta High School traditions which have become symbolic of the spirit for which we Indians are noted. He is attributed with bringing the tune for our Alma Mater, our glorious maroon and white colors, our proud name Indians. And so it is with loving gratitude that we dedicate our 1953 Otyokwa to the man who is the spirit behind the spirit, our Big Chief, Clyde Wafer.

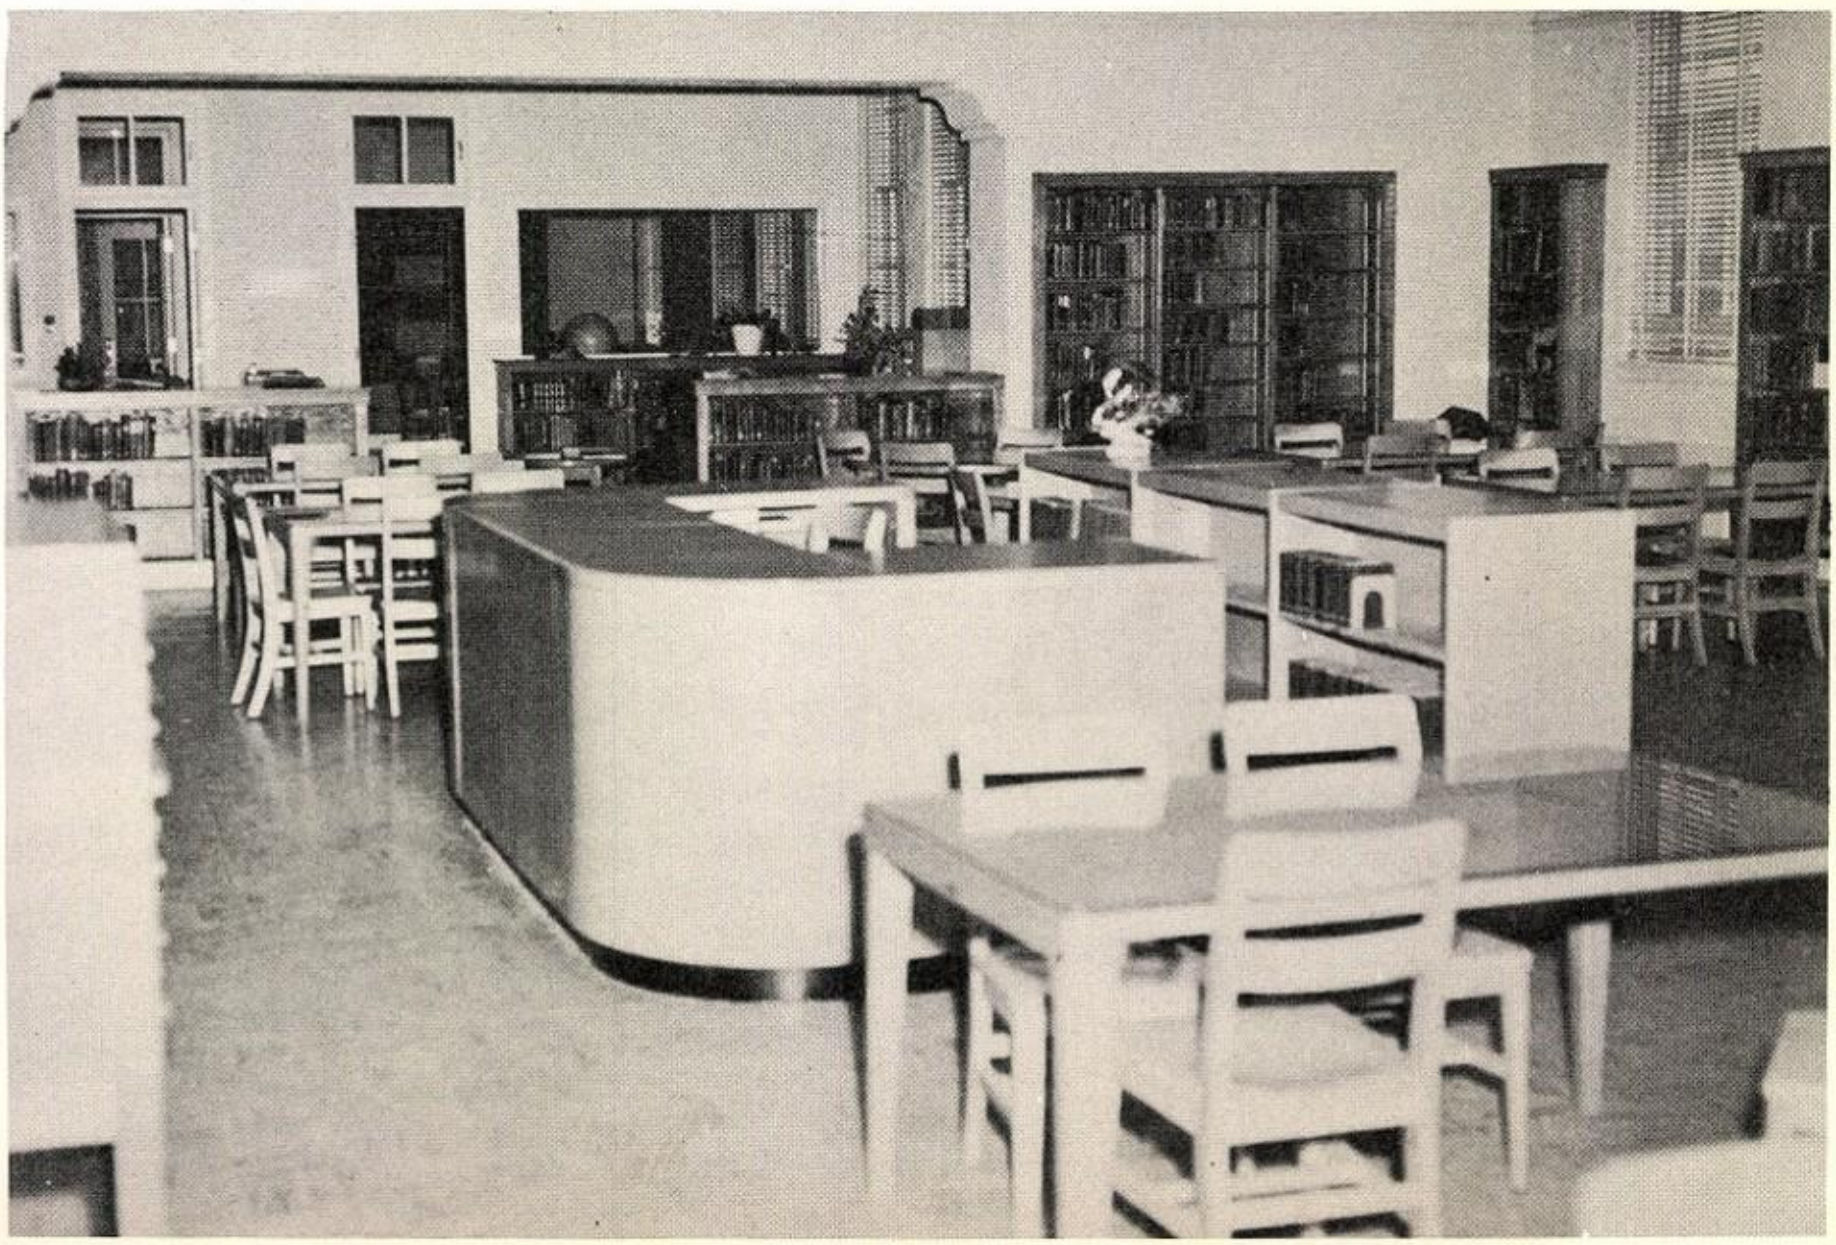
Clyde Wafer

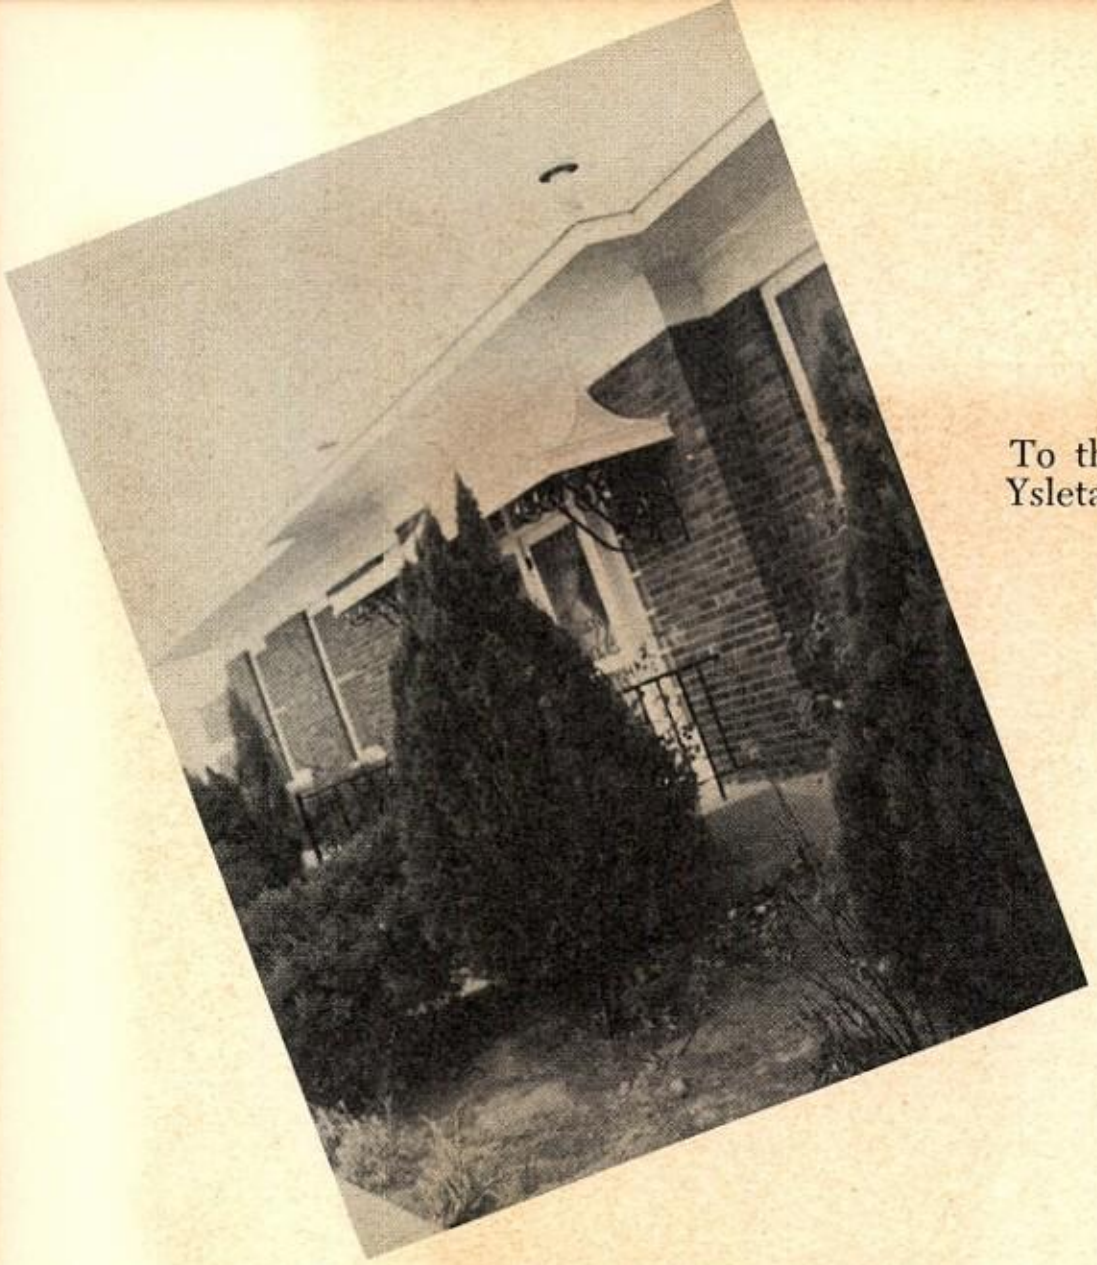
Our Alma Mater

Arches add beauty to the new main entrance.



With the new addition to the school came a modern and complete library which is always the perfect spot for quiet study and leisure reading.





To this model home of the Future Homemakers all Ysleta points with pride.

Here the heart of Ysleta High School stands in readiness for the gathering of her tribe.

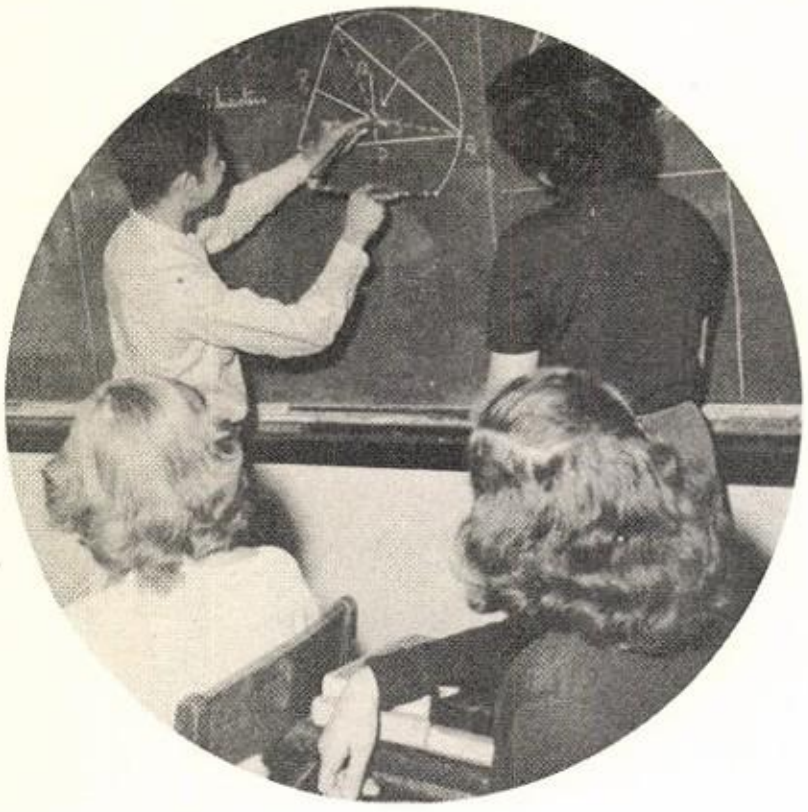
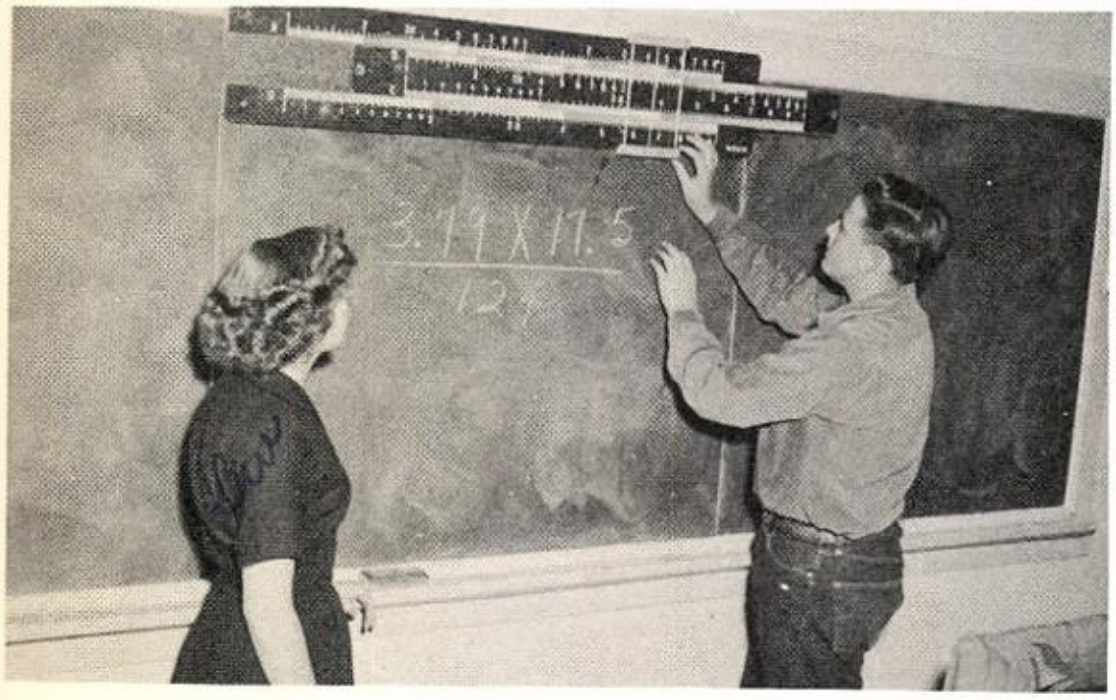
FACULTY

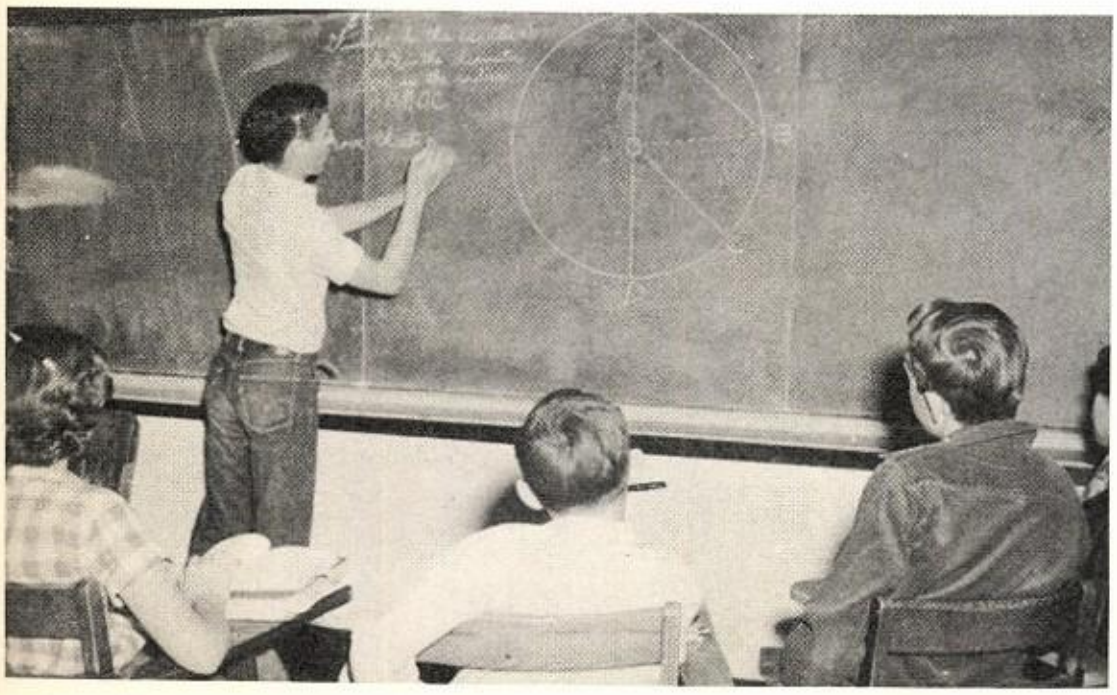
Mathematics Department



Circles and angles prove enjoyable to some, trying to others.



A slight movement of the wrist solves the problem – with the aid of the slide rule, that is.



Equilateral, perpendicular, point – such words are heard in the math department when geometry students attempt to prove their problems.

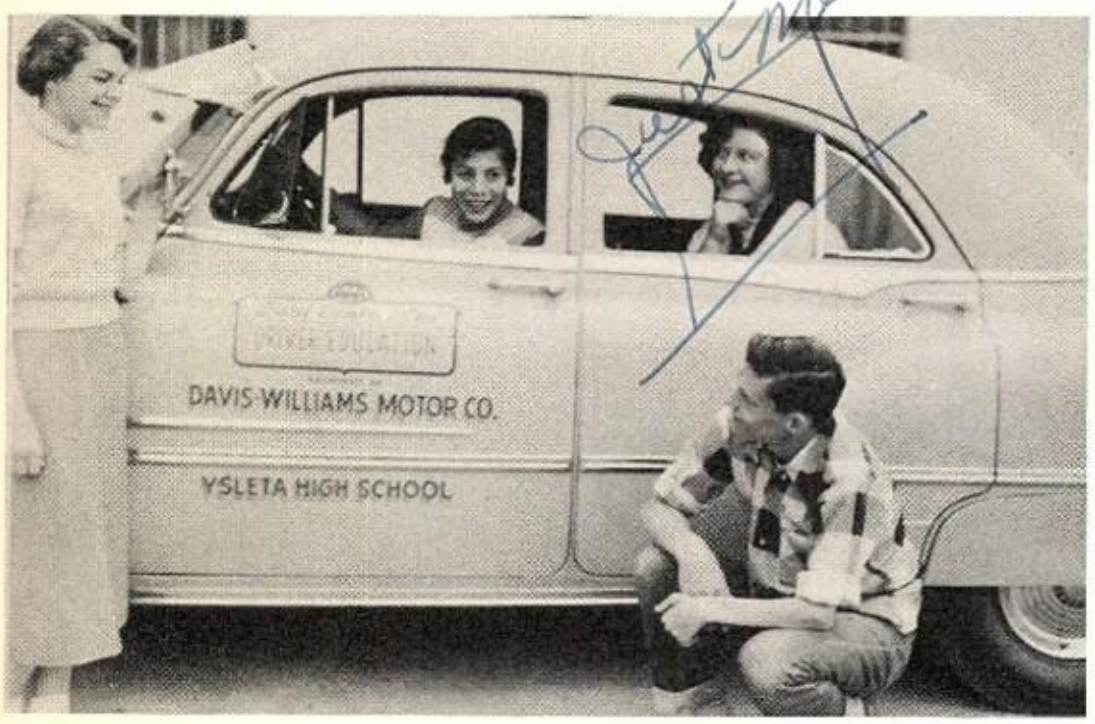
Industrial Education



Ysleta's pride and joy, the drivers' education Pontiac, is in use for the first time this year.

Correct measurement to the fraction of an inch is stressed in the training of industrial arts students.

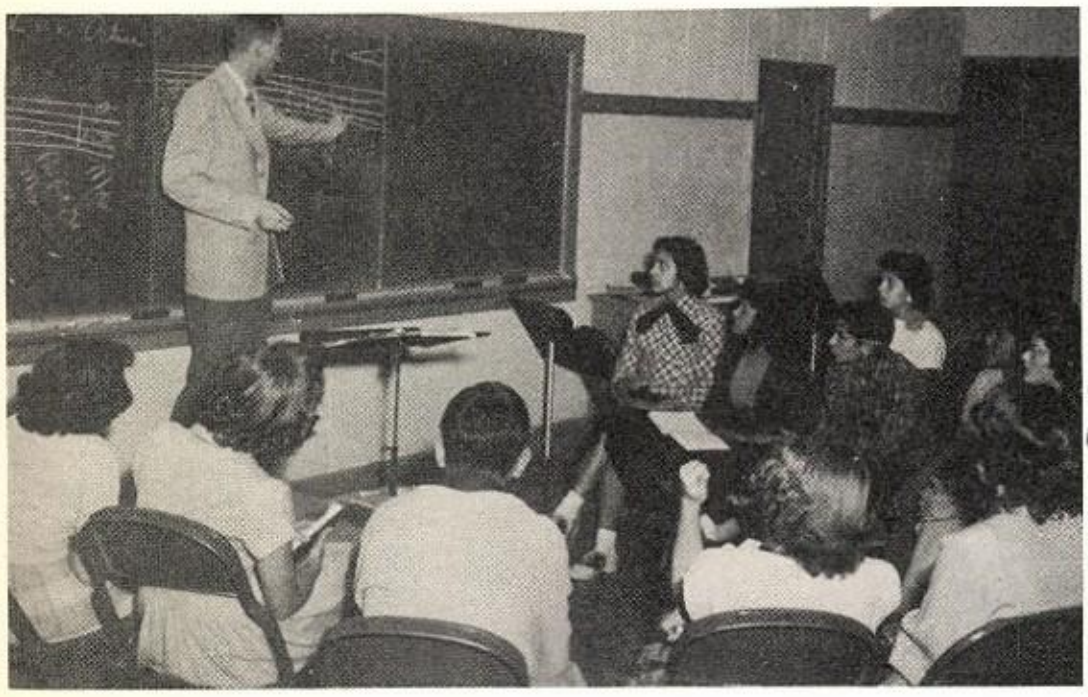
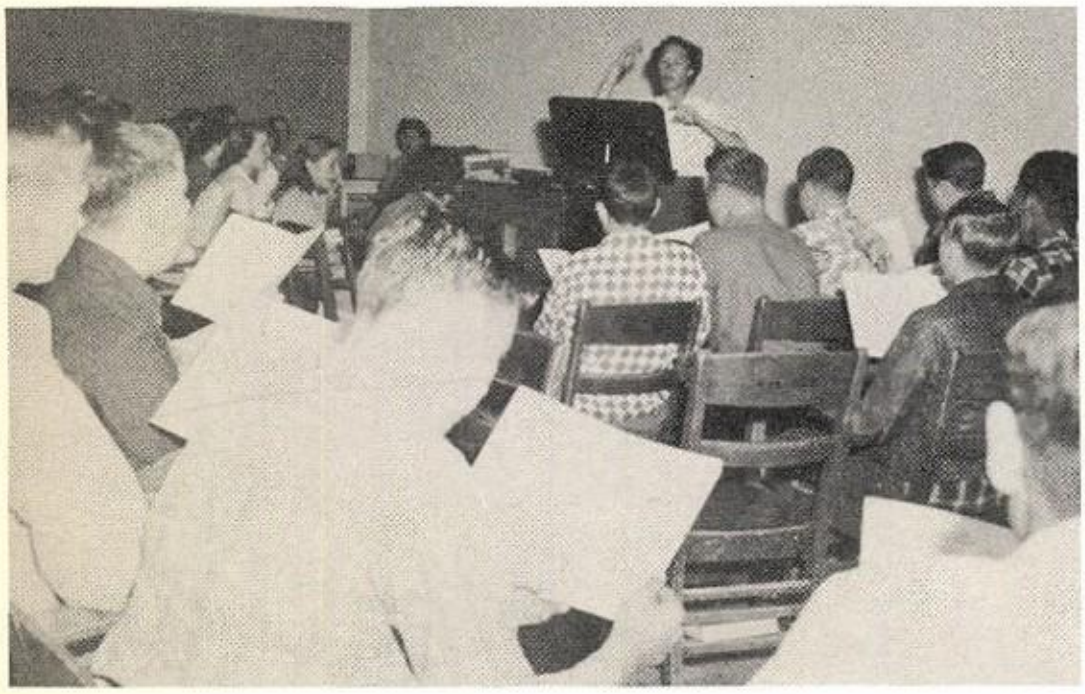
Library assistants plus the card catalog help students to locate books.

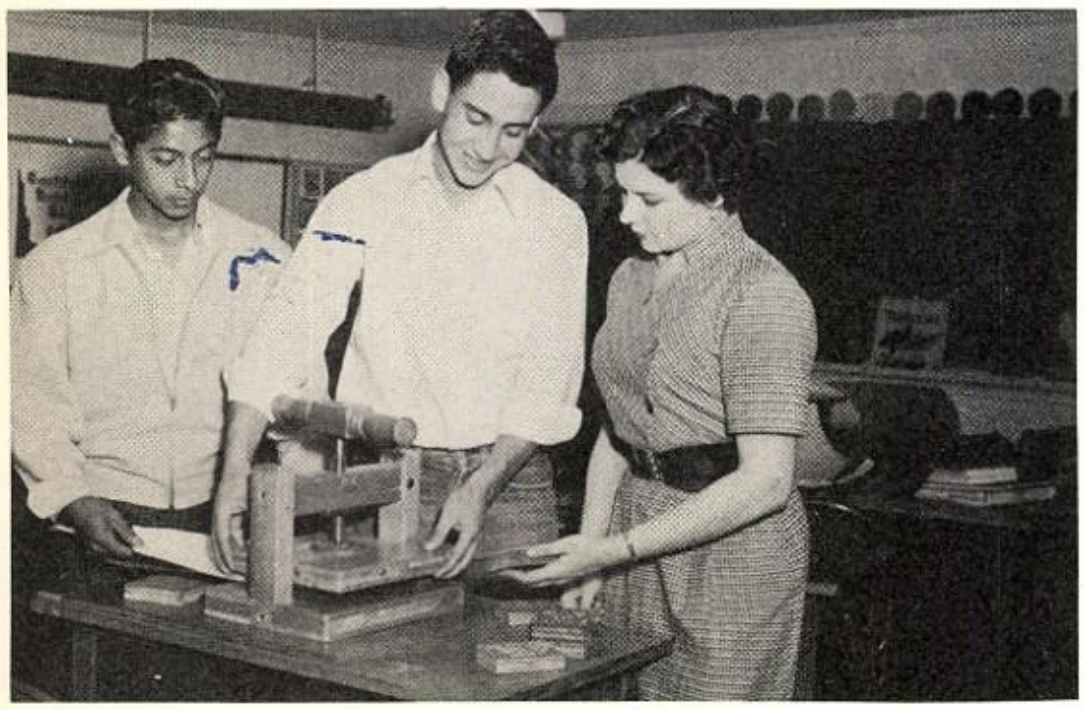
Music Department



Aspiring musicians, these junior band members are deep in study.



Junior chorus members get their daily vocal cord exercise with "Teach" directing.



Art students do things besides paint and draw, such as leather work and the making of linoleum cuts.

There are no feet on the desk or lazy secretaries in the attendance office.

SENIORS

Favorites

The Senior Class this year selected as their favorites none other than CAROLE LARK, a tall, graceful newcomer t Ysleta, and that long, lanky fellow, "FUSSY" PAUL. Because she was easy to know, Carole stepped immediatel into the spotlight, and "Fussy", whose nick-name is in direct contrast to his personality, was chosen because of hi mischievous ways and amiable disposition.

OFFICERS

Tommy Spidel, having served his second term as president of this class of '53, has shown beyond a doubt his outstanding ability as a leader. Teaming up with him are Ray McCormick as vice-president and Barbara Andres as secretary-treasurer. This group was destined to lead the class in a most active Senior year.

SPONSORS

Leadership, loyalty, likability—these words are synonymous in describing Bill Lucas and Miss Honie Lou Laster, sponsors of the Senior Class. Combining these qualities with a willingness to work and a desire to provide fun, this pair became the pride and joy of all '53 graduates.

JUNIORS

Favorites

JO ANN GRAHAM and WELDON DONALDSON have long since proved themselves worthy of being designated favorites. During the past years the Junior Class has been well aware of Jo Ann's appealing disposition and becoming appearance and Weldon's continually jovial manner and personable good looks.

OFFICERS

Under the capable guidance of President Tom Hughes (left), the Junior Class has completed another important and noteworthy year. Serving with him in two more essential positions were Pat Resley, vice-president, and Grace Fernandez, secretary-treasurer. Having such an outstanding background, the entire Junior Class is destined to have a most properous Senior year.

SPONSORS

After having been appointed sponsors of this Junior Class, Miss Loretta Gray and Jack Page quickly acquainted themselves with the many duties of their position. Their fine characteristics have made them indispensable in the successful outcome of the class and its activities.

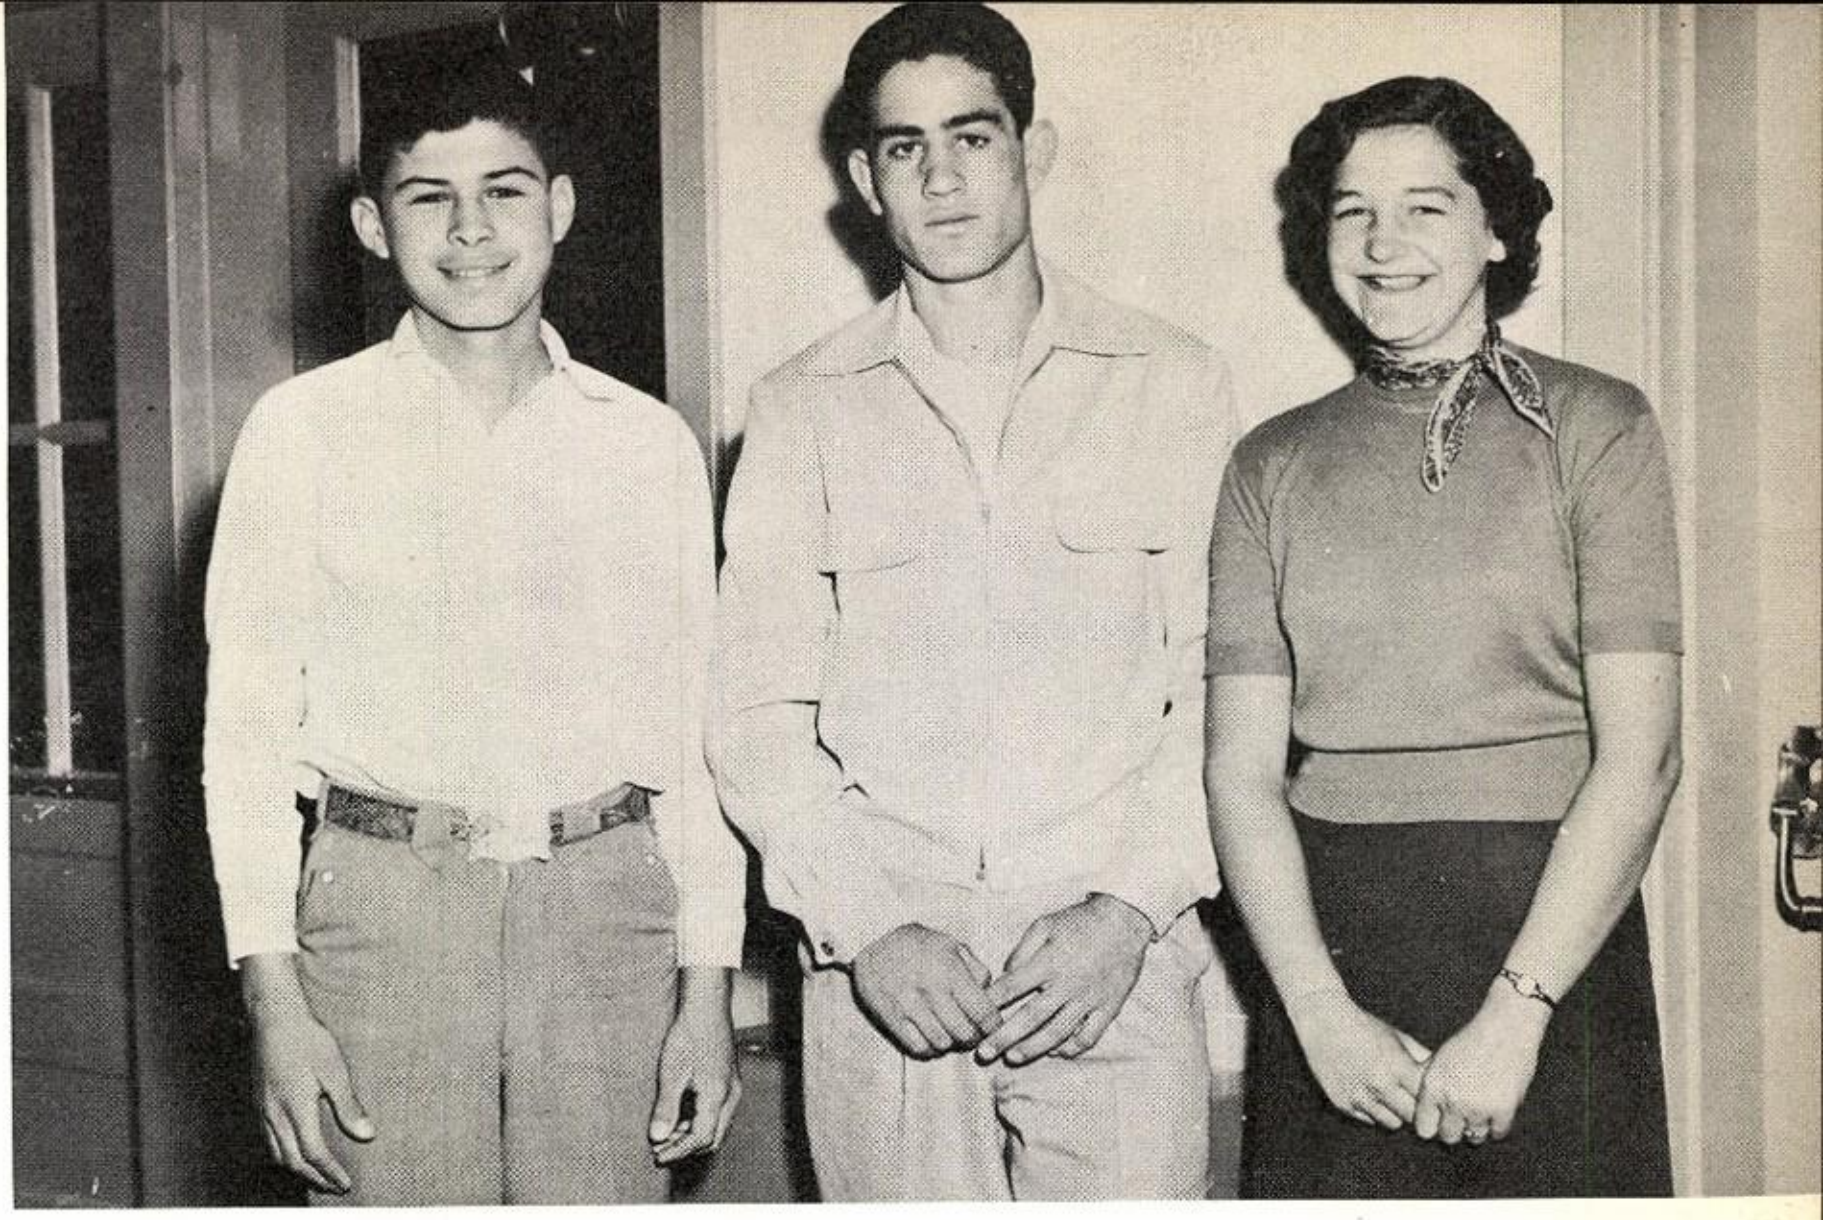
SOPHOMORES

Favorites

Well on their way to a successful high school career are COLLEEN ROBERTS and RAY HOPPER. Proving this fact was their election as Sophomore Favorites at which time Colleen's genuine sweetness and Ray's overall friendliness quickly captivated their fellow classmates.



OFFICERS

With skillful direction from their president, Tom Perez, the Sophomore Class has triumphantly concluded its second year in high school. Salvador Arzola as vice-president and Barbara Cantrell as secretary-treasurer have both done memorably in these vital positions.

SPONSORS

Helping this year's Sophomore Class set their firm foundation for the two years to follow were Henry Wheeler, Robert Lee, and Miss Audrey Wehner. Under their competent direction this class has completed a year which will long be remembered.

FRESHMEN

Favorites

It didn't take long for this year's frosh to live down the name of "those green freshmen" because they promptly got together and chose two unforgettable favorites. Immediately this class took notice of RICHARD SERNA's neat good looks and TERRY HOLLAND's sparkling personality.

OFFICERS

To lead them in laying a firm foundation for their high school career, the newcomers to Ysleta decided on Charles Rosemond as president, Sally Faye Lozano, vice-president, and Dorothy Hastings, secretary-treasurer. These three did admirably in fulfilling their posts while at the same time laying the groundwork for a bright future.

SPONSORS

Ronald Childers, Mrs. Joanne Wolf and Walter Bishop have been the guiding hand and inspiration behind this year's ambitious Freshman Class. With their competence, patience and loyal support these sponsors have aided in the achievements of the group.

WHO'S WHO

Serving above and beyond the call of duty is a requisite of a good journalist. ANITA GOODRICH, in her three years' experience, has filled vital positions on both the Pow Wow and Otyokwa staffs in the fields of reporting, photography, advertising, banking and layouts as well as editing.

CAROL SHALKHAUSER

Experienced in typing, shorthand and bookkeeping, CAROL SHALKHAUSER will some day become an exceptionally diligent bookkeeper in a position she hopes to hold after graduation. Because of her perfectionist attitude in the Commercial Department Carol will amply fill this occupation which calls for a person with punctuality, exactness and dexterity.

JOHN HEIDELBERG

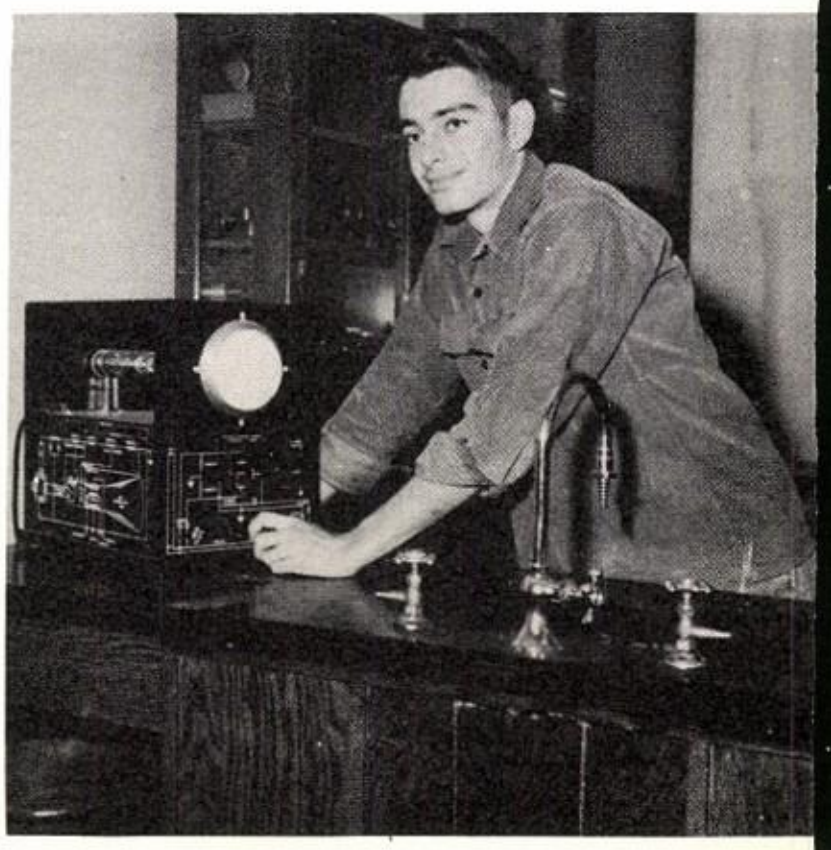
Versatility characterizes JOHN HEIDELBERG in the Speech Department. As a participant he has been found exceptional because of his limitless service and his continuous efforts forward in debate, extemporaneous speaking and dramatics. No matter to which phase of speech John chooses to devote his energies, he can always be counted upon to do the particular job to the best of his ability.



CHANDLER DAVIDSON

A scientist through and through — that's CHANDLER DAVIDSON, representing the Science Department. A chemistry student at present, Chandler has already completed physics and general science. Well in keeping with his intentions of becoming a scientific engineer is his hobby of astronomy, including his continued efforts in assembling a double reflector telescope.

Planning to enter the field of education as an English major, HELEN HOUSER, excels in all phases of this subject whether it be theme composition, grammar construction or literary interpretation. Her unparalleled eagerness to learn has placed her in the top A bracket of the English Department.

BONNIE ARREDONDO

As president of the Ysleta Chapter, Future Homemakers of America, BONNIE ARREDONDO has continually upheld the main purpose of all future homemakers: "To promote a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfactions of homemaking." Bonnie has also become an active participant as an officer in the district organization and has worked all year toward the third degree of achievement, the State degree of Future Homemakers of America.

HOWARD AYCOCK

Not only does HOWARD AYCOCK, representing the Industrial Arts Department, show an aptitude in his class work, but he further displays this interest in his own home workshop. Having completed four years in shop, Howard has become so thoroughly enthusiastic over the subject that he plans to teach it in the future.

RUDY MURILLO has proved successful in athletics, his favorite pastime. In his four year's experience in the Physical Education department Rudy has discovered that he best likes the sports of touch football and basketball while at the same time he is most accomplished in track.

JOHN LANE

"Preparing for the Future" might be taken as the motto of JOHN LANE, who is looking forward to a profession as a dairy farmer. Practical experience has helped John in his endeavors, since he has learned agriculture both at home and at school. Proof of his ability was the fact that John was elected to the state's highest honor in the field of school agriculture, the Lone Star Farmer.

JACK SARGENT has demonstrated his interest in the field of Social Studies by not only taking but wholeheartedly participating in five of the subjects offered in this department. Jack is a capable student in that he has a remarkable understanding of foreign and domestic affairs, economy, history, law and government.

BEATRICE SADA

BEATRICE SADA has steadily worked her way up the ladder in library service, starting first shelving books and later typing and book shellacking, until finally she was assigned a permanent job at the desk. Because Beatrice was competent at a variety of jobs, it is no wonder that she was chosen Library representative.

SALLIE SAMPLES

Ever-willing to cooperate and assist in Music Department affairs, enthusiastic and gracious as an accompanist, considerate and encouraging with her fellow-workers, exceptionally charming and talented – these are reasons why SALLIE SAMPLES stands out. Undoubtedly the explanation for Sallie's remarkable success is that she uses her gift of music to help in the work she loves.

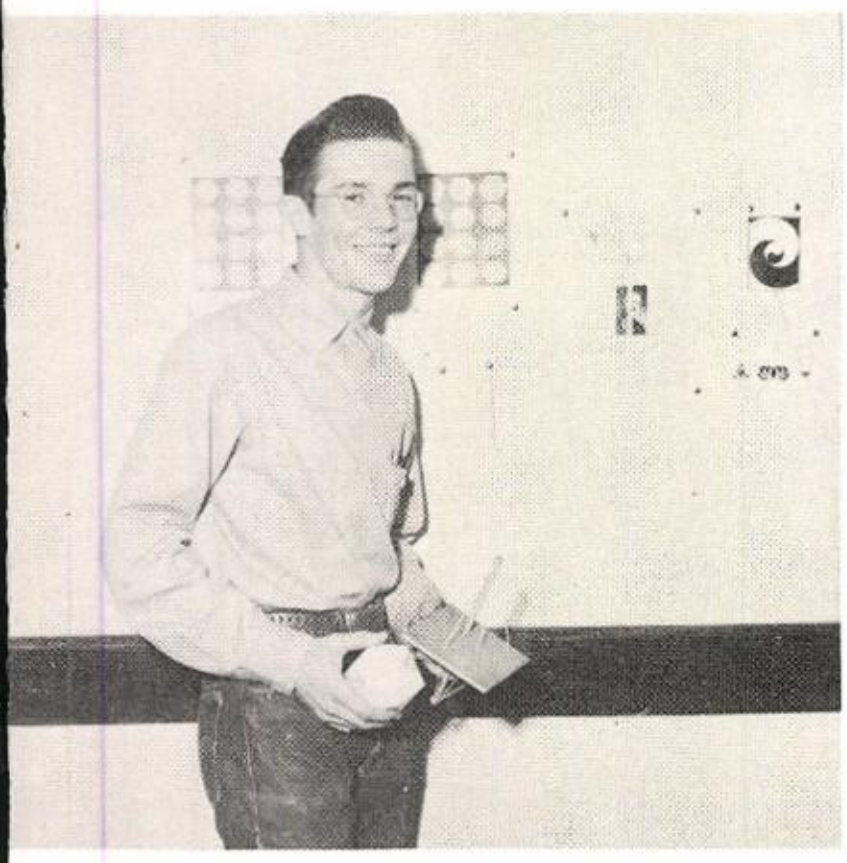
ARTURO LUGO, a versatile student, enjoys any kind of art project from drawings to scratchboard work. In his two years in the Art Department he has participated in both the Art Club and the National Art Honor Society and is eager someday to do commercial work, preferably lettering. In the future Arturo's name may appear in the journals of the art world.



LARRY TRAYLOR

Well on his way toward the goal of becoming a nuclear physicist is LARRY TRAYLOR, outstanding student in the Math Department. He has finished two years of algebra and one year of solid geometry, plain geometry and trigonometry. Thus Larry has long sinced proved the keenness and accuracy of his well-trained mind.

MARY OLIVAS

Disproving the fact that Latin is a dead language, MARY OLIVAS has shown by her diligent efforts that this is a subject which can be both interesting and challenging. Voluntarily Mary has gone out of her way to further the department's activities and projects and has gained the admiration of both students and teachers in the process.

JO WRIGHT

JO WRIGHT has completely fulfilled the requirements of the perfect Courtesy student. She has been attentive to the job put before her, respectful and considerate of faculty and students alike and a true and gracious friend to all newcomers to Ysleta High School. Jo has truly learned the meaning of courtesy, which is a stepping stone in leading to a happy and worthwhile life.

NANCY McCLAIN, during her four years in the Physical Education Department, has shown herself to be a marked leader in all fields of girls' sports. As president and secretary of the Girls' Recreation Association, as Student Leader and as a member of both class teams and all-star teams, Nancy has proved her athletic abilities. She is sure to go on to college to become a prominent figure in physical training, the field in which she wants to major.

ELVA ARRAS

ELVA ARRAS, already familiar with the basic essentials of the Spanish language, has continued the study of this subject which was already part of her heritage in order to improve and enrich her life. During her four years in the Spanish Department Elva has worked to maintain her above-average standards, particularly in writing.

SANDRA YARBOROUGH

SANDRA YARBOROUGH is one student who has found permanent fascination in the musical language of our neighbors to the south. Not only has she learned to speak Spanish fluently but also has furthered her knowledge of Spanish background through the reading of newspapers, novels and stories. It is no wonder that this fourth year student with a straight A record was chosen as the outstanding English speaking pupil in the Spanish Department.

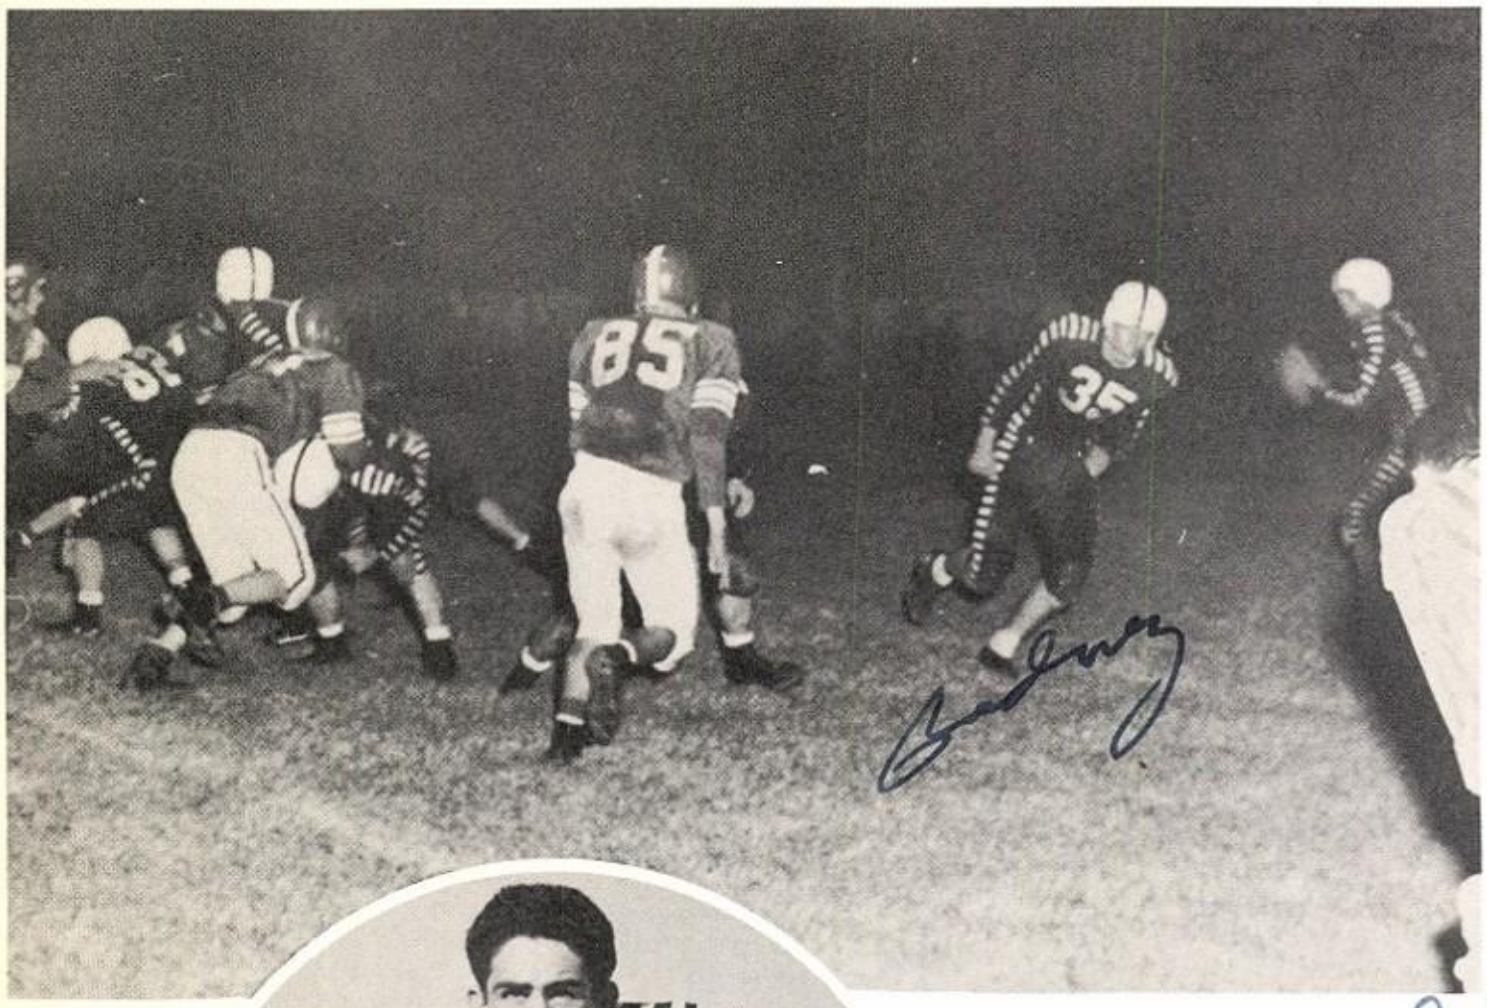
YSLETA, ROSWELL FIGHT TO 0-0 DEADLOCK IN OPENE



Ysleta's Tribe opened the seaso with a 0-0 deadlock against th Roswell Coyotes.

The Warriors entered the gam with only eight days' practice un der their belts, while Roswell ha much more practice and on game's experience.

Fighting evenly all the wa neither team could capitalize o any advantage. Roswell, how ever, had two opportunities whi the Tribe had only one.

In this game the Indians showe themselves to have a well-ba anced backfield in Joe Candela ia, Forrest Cooper, Rodney Bu sen and Henry Dutchover.

Lack of practice was the ma factor in this showing. After th game the Indians went to wo in earnest.

REDSKINS RALLY TO WHIP FAVORED PLAINVIEW 25-7

fter a 0-0 tie with the Roswell oyotes the Indians came back rongly, with a week's rest, to efeat a highly favored Plain-ew eleven 25-7.

ainview's only tally came in e second quarter. A few plays ter Henry Dutchover loped rough the center of the line d went on to score Ysleta's first k points.

the eyes of the coaching staff e Warriors were a completely anged group of players.

ne main factor in this game was e terrific running and passing little Henry Dutchover. utch's sparkplugging on the am, together with his own sen-tional running, is a feat that ll long be remembered.

INDIANS LOSE DISTRICT OPENER TO EL PASO 41-13

Opening district competition without the services of "Hurricane" Henry Dutchover, Ysleta's Indians faced the El Paso High School Tigers and were defeated 41-13 in a rough scramble.

Salvador Arzola and Cecil Harvey alternated at the key slot of running the team with both boys doing top notch jobs.

Excellent defensive work in the second half saved the Tribe from one of the biggest smears of the season. When the third quarter started, the Bengals led 34-0. In the last two periods both teams scored seven points.

The major factor in this defeat was "General" Mike Aguirre, the Cats' quarterback.

WARRIORS END SEASON WITH 50-6 WIN OVER IRISH

With seniors playing their fina game in high school, Ysleta fighting Warriors salvaged a no too successful season with a 50- victory over the Cathedral Iris at Hutchins Stadium Novembe 20.

The game was marked by th participation of every membe of the squad, as all reserves sa action.

After being inspired by five Tac Indians, who gave demonstra tions of a few Indian dances, th Ysleta Indians went out to sho just what they could do.

Showing more strength and vari ety in this game than at any othe point in the season, the Tribe along with many other experi ments, tried the possibilities fo next year's squad.

Tribe Drops Two Games To El Paso 42-37, 50-48

Playing two of the closest games of the season, Ysleta dropped a pair of games to El Paso High School 42-37 and 50-48 in tussles at Austin High.

In the first game El Paso led 10-5 at the end of the first quarter and 20-14 at the half. The third quarter was all tied up at 27-27. The regular game ended 35-35, but El Paso went ahead in the overtime to win 42-37.

The second game of the series found the score tied 48-48 at the end of the normal period of play, but El Paso went ahead on a pair of free shots 50-48, and that was the game.

BOWIE BRUINS WHIP YSLETA INDIANS 51-37, 67-33

Bowie Bears made it two in a row as they defeated the Ysleta Indians in a pair of games at the Austin gym 51-37 and 67-33.

In the first game the Tribe almost matched the Bruins point for point for three quarters, then dropped off and were never in the running again.

The second game was a bit more one-sided than the first of this series. Bowie went ahead 15-5 at the end of the first quarter and was not threatened. High point men of this game were Bobby Martinez and Joe Candelaria with seven points each.

EFFERSON SILVER FOXES CLOBBER BRAVES 71-48, 61-49

Jefferson's Silver Foxes made it a winless season for the Indians of Ysleta as they whipped the Warriors twice 71-48 and 61-49 at the Austin gym.

In the first game of the pair Jefferson broke two records as they scored the most field goals in one game and the highest total of points in a district tussle. At the end of the first quarter the Foxes edged ahead 14-13 but were never threatened again. Rene Baca led the show for the Indians by sinking 15 points.

In the second game Joe Candelaria again led the Tribe as he scored 12 points.

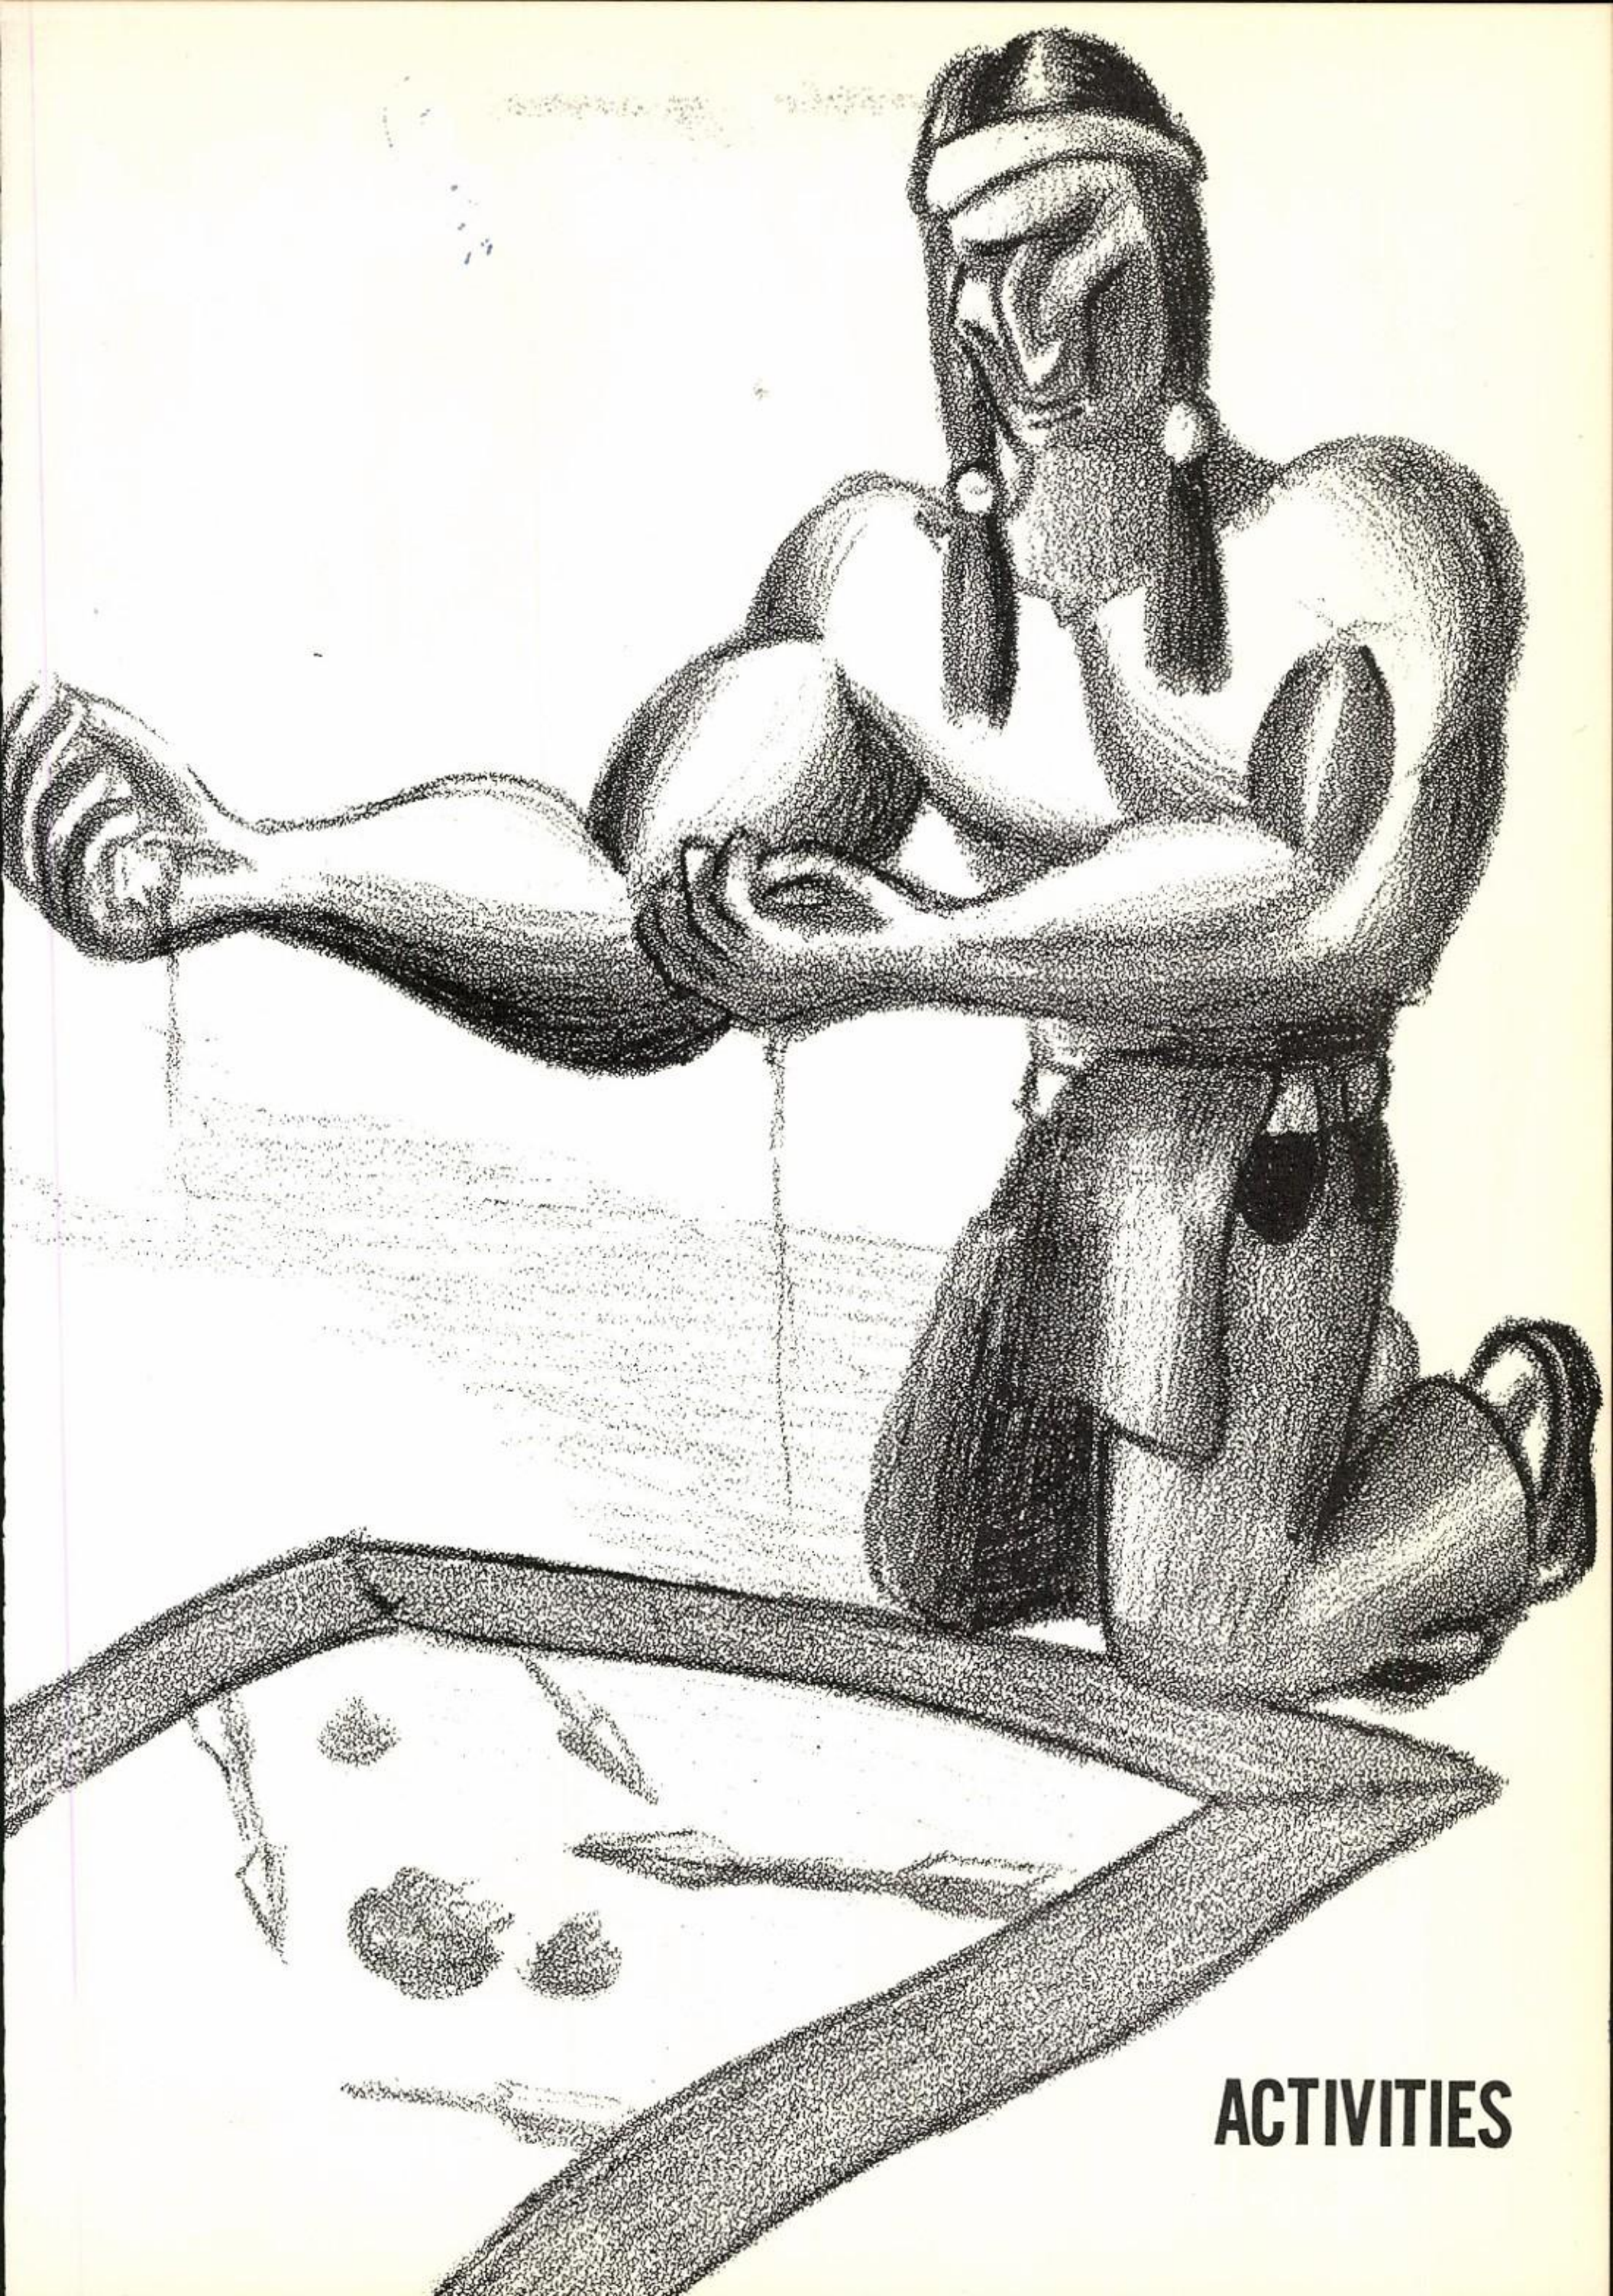
Nancy McClain
Best Girl Athlete

Nancy McClain was named Best Girl Athlete by the girls' PE teachers after having earned 1950 points, 750 more than necessary for a letter sweater. A member of all-star teams in basketball, volleyball, tumbling, badminton, ping-pong, speedball, baseball and archery, Nancy has also served as Girls Recreation Association president this year as well as a student leader and member of the Orchesis Club.



ACTIVITIES

Beneath the shade of giant sunflowers Bonnie Arredondo (Martha Mears) makes eyes at Duane Martin (Tinker Smith) in one of the quieter moments of the play.

Carole Lark (Eva Friese) and Joe Holder (Mr. Everheel) read the letter that causes the latter to attempt to secure land out of which all plants grow rapidly to remarkable size.

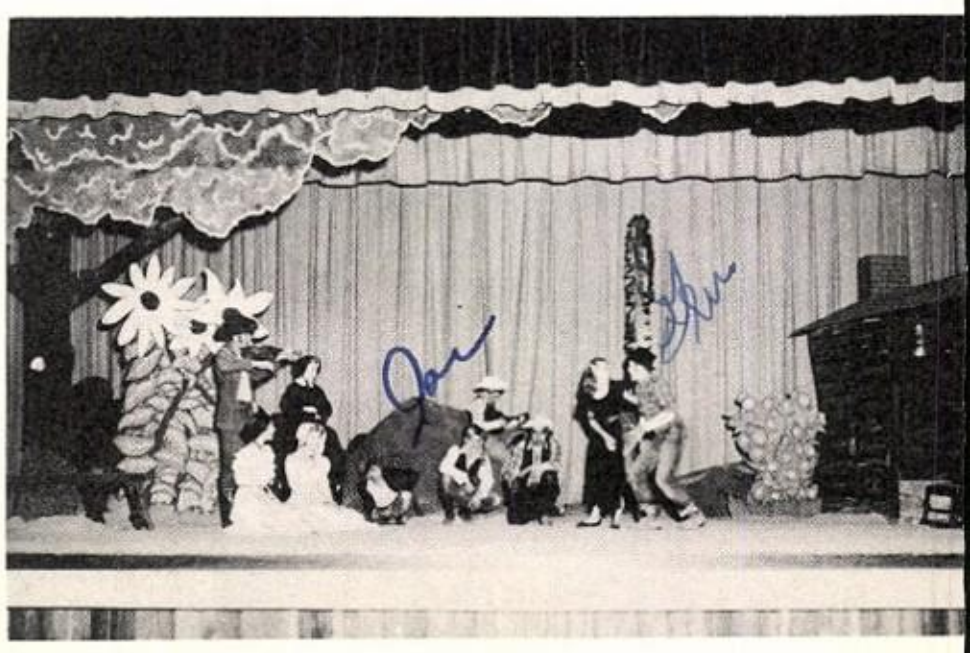
"Green Valley"

When the rascally Mr. Everheel attempts to take Eldon Berry's land in GREEN VALLEY because of its unbelievable growing powers, Eldon's ancestors, the Berry spirits, successfully interfere and thwart Mr. Everheel's repeated endeavors to gain the property. In the process the remarkable spirits also save the romance between Eldon and his sweetheart, Prim Stokes.

In one of the stormier scenes Nancy Hixson (Prim Stokes) vehemently accuses Tom Young (Eldon Berry) of being in love with another girl and of defying his ancestors.

A spirit character, John Heidelberg (Lonesome Berry), and Tom Young (Eldon Berry) finally come to blows over Prim in this rough-and-tumble fight scene.

Thanks to the Berry spirits Eldon is able to keep Mr. Everheel from taking his land in Green Valley.



Walter Vetter, president of the Ysleta Board of Education, dedicated the new building and named the auditorium in honor of J. M. Hanks.

Superintendent of Ysleta Schools J. M. Hanks accepted the dedication and acknowledged the honor bestowed upon him.

Dedication of Building

At the PTA's annual Back-to-School Night and dedication of the new building, Clyde Wafer, principal, acted as master-of-ceremonies.

"But I didn't know you was the big swollen-headed stiff!" Annie Oakley voices her surprise in one of the earlier shooting matches of the play.

"Annie Get Your Gun"

Senior Play

Poor, misunderstood Annie thinks Frank Butler will be proud of her now that she is the star of the show. (Bonnie Arredondo and Tom Young were cast in the leads.)

Sitting Bull, Buffalo Bill and Charlie Davenport listen painfully as Annie berates them for bringing her back on a cattle boat.

After Sitting Bull explains that Annie can't win both the shooting match and Frank Butler, she cheerfully forfeits the match to him.

"Oh You Beautiful Doll" is played as the band goes into formation in honor of Band Sweetheart Diane Kennedy.

"Hey! Hey! Ho! Ho! Come on Indians; let's go!"

The marching band and drum corps strut their stuff in the Sun Carnival Parade.

Red, yellow and blue, the primary colors, were illustrated in the National Art Honor Society's Valentine Day initiation. Ten new members had been approved following the annual art exhibit.

Copper, yellow and other fall shades added seasonal color to the library staff's open house and tea honoring the faculty and showing off the spacious new library.

Hello Darling, Thanks for saving me all this space ~~for me~~ but I don't think I can write that much. I'll try anyway. I could never find the words to express my feelings toward you because I care for you so much. You know I'm not much of a talker; as I always say "Action speaks louder than words." I think you're the sweetest little girl in the world and I am so sorry for the way I've treated you. I still love you darling "very much" and I don't think I will ever stop loving you. I know we have had our little arguments but they have always turned out so far and I think this one will turn out for the best too. I know all this one is my fault and I feel like a heel. I wont ever forget the wonderful times that we have had together and I'm sure there will be more in the future that will never forget too. I'll always remember the dances that we have been too. You're really a wonderful dancer and the only one that I could really enjoy dancing with. We had a swell Christmas together and I'm sorry about what happened New Year's. But I couldn't help being away from you that time. I hope you have enjoyed being with me on all our dates. I have tried to make them as pleasant as possible. I am running out of things to say now darling and its about time to go back to work. I hope I haven't written anything that will hurt you because you have already had your share. Please try to forget the bad things that have happened to us & remember the wonderful things. I'll always love you darling. Please forgive me for doing you way I have.

Your Loving Bobby "Be sweet"

"Dear Mary Lou"

It's been really swell knowing you this year, but I feel that I could have been a better friend than I have. You've had some bad breaks guy - I think you know what I mean - but remember I'll always be rootin' for you, and if you ever need any thing feel free to call on me. Stay sweet as ever and I know you can't help but go far in life as well as school. I'll miss you lotz!

Love to you,
Pabmi

Lots of luck

TORO SIGN #13

Hundreds of millions of years ago, the Southwest was an area of oceans and swamplands. As time passed, deep layers of sediment were formed from the fishes, mammals, reptiles, plants, and other forms of life that sank to the bottom of the water. Later covered by rock and soil, these remnants of living things broke down into oil and natural gas. Today, when you ignite gas in your home, you release the energy and warmth of the sunshine which supported life aeons ago.

Dear Mary Lou
Well, I never thought we'd be writing each other in Ysleta annuals but I'm sure glad now aren't you? We've sure had fun in choir this year. I'll always remember you cause you're so pretty and you've always been so sweet to everybody since I've known you. You're bound to go a long way and get in T.C.U. next year.
Good luck always
